

Independent Living Association

by Community Health Improvement Partners

CHIP ILA Fresno invites you to join us

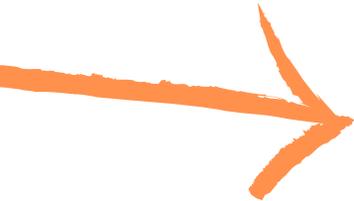

Tenant Rights & Responsibilities Course

Brought to you in partnership with CCLS

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA LEGAL SERVICES
JUSTICE. EQUITY. POWER.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS FREE TRAINING TO LEARN MORE ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES AS A TENANT!

FRIDAY, JANUARY 22ND, 2021
9:00 AM - 10:45 AM

What will I learn?

Taught by Nikki Love, Homeless Prevention Project managing Attorney from Central California Legal Services (CCLS), you will be able to fully understand your rights & responsibilities as a tenant and how to work collaboratively with your landlord.

Who should attend?

Shared housing tenants will benefit by taking this course. Landlords currently operating or thinking of operating an independent living are also welcome to attend.

Why should I attend?

This course is FREE and a great opportunity to better understand landlord-tenant relationships. And it's easy to attend through Zoom!

SAVE YOUR SEAT!

Register to attend course virtually via Zoom here:
<https://tinyurl.com/ILAFresnoCalendar>

COMMUNITY HEALTH
IMPROVEMENT PARTNERS
making a difference together

DEPARTMENT of
BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

This project is funded by the Fresno County Department of Behavioral Health